

J. L. R. Bell Chairman Of Public School Board Will Discuss Salaries

J. L. R. Bell was elected chairman of the Newmarket public schools board at the board's first meeting of 1951. During nominations at the Prince Charles school Friday night, Mrs. M. B. Seldon and Mr. Herbert Atkins withdrew their names in favor of Mr. Bell as chairman. It is expected that the board will increase teachers' salaries at the next meeting.

It was suggested that the trustee-staff relations committee meet with teachers this week to discuss salaries. Said Mr. Atkins, "We promised to look after their request for a cost of living bonus by the first of this year."

Allan Perks, Bell and Atkins, trustees elected for this year, were sworn in by the secretary, Robert Pritchard. The following standing committees were struck: finance, all members of the board with Mrs. Seldon chairman; property, Allan Perks, Herbert Atkins, Mrs. C. A. Curtis, chairman; management, Perks, Atkins, Mrs. Seldon, chairman. Mr. Atkins was elected vice chairman of the board.

Mrs. Seldon said that according to the department of education, a classroom could not be held open in the King George school for half a day for a kindergarten class. She said that the department had been consulted and that Mr. Routley of the department said the classroom could not be used for kindergarten purposes because of crowded conditions.

The board approved a motion by Mrs. Mathews and Mrs. Seldon that three days notice be given by deputations who intend to interview the board. Deputations who do not give notice will be deferred until the next meeting. If it is an urgent Ethelmere Ada's Snowball is the champion four-year-old Guernsey who completed her new Canadian milk production record Tuesday night. Snowball belongs to the Kingfield Farm herd of C. F. W. Burns at King. In 365 days, milked three times a day, she produced about 18,600 pounds of milk and 915 pounds of butterfat. Here Snowball is being congratulated by Deputy Minister of Agriculture C. D. Graham, Mrs. Burns, Mr. Burns and Reg Canning, in charge of test cows in the herd.

Erwin Winch New Clerk For North Gwillimbury, Council Moves Offices

Erwin Winch, Keswick, has been named the new clerk of North Gwillimbury township. The decision was made at a council meeting on Monday night at the home of Deputy-Reeve R. J. Pollock.

Mr. Winch will replace Fred Peel, Keswick, who has been township clerk for the past 12 years, and since 1943, tax collector and treasurer as well.

The move followed a decision to change the township office from Mr. Peel's mill premises to Jack Bain's store in Keswick. Mr. Peel, it was said, had told council he would be unable to be at his place of business and at the township offices too, not at his present salary.

Three resolutions passed by the council tell the story. The first was a resolution to rent the two front rooms of Jack Bain's store in Keswick at $300 a year. The second was a resolution to send

Assistant Clerk Gives Aurora Resignation

The assistant town clerk of Aurora, William Large, submitted his resignation on Tuesday morning. It was reported that he refused to carry out certain of his duties that morning and submitted his resignation to council. Council will still give him two months pay which it authorized at the council meeting the night before.

Mr. Large was given an opportunity in an hour long talk before council Monday night to express his grievance. He stated that he had only been given a week of holidays in his eleven years of service, but that he had no complaints of his work for the town or at the clerk's office.

He said there had been an unpleasant relationship in connection with his work for the hydro commission.

Two months leave with pay had been granted him by the hydro and the council. A resolution by Harold Pringle and Reeve Cook asked that Mr. Large remain with the town until a replacement could be hired and trained to work for the clerk. Mr. Large said he was satisfied with that.

DEFEAT STOUFFVILLE

Our scrappy band of Optimist bantams are flying. Tuesday evening, they registered their fourth straight win of the season in O.M.H.A. competition, doing it up right by white-washing Stouffville 4-0. Grant Morton was the popper-upper, sparking the Optimists with a two-goal performance and doing some nifty blue-line work. Bill Forhan and Bob Wilson were the other goal-getters. Murray Young, about ready to step into Joe Tunney's boots, did some fine shot-blocking to gain a shut-out.

According to the secretary, the fees for 47 East Gwillimbury pupils are paid by other school boards. There are 27 or 28 additional non-resident pupils who pay their own fees.

The act also states that there can be a difference between fees where the pupil himself pays and where another school board pays the community fees.

Phoebe on the weatherman, his uncles, his aunts, and all his cousins including those radio announcers who interpret the weather interpretations. So it was going to rain on Sunday and the temperature was going up to the 50's. So spring was here. So what happens? Snowed into the hubs. Phoebe.

Back in the old days when the surest sign of a weather change was the aching of an old arrow wound there was none of this uncertainty. The squirrels, groundhogs, bears and other assorted wild-life were far more dependable than these schmooches on the radio.

We were glancing over a trade paper and saw a couple of items which make for sprightly reading. The first is an advertisement in the Lisbon Falls, Maine, Enterprise as follows:

"But the planting of trees is something anyone can do. Up here on the rugged and eroded hillsides—or down in the town—to replace, perhaps, the beautiful trees destroyed in the storm.

"It gives the gift of time . . . time and vision not often granted to short-sighted men. One does not plant trees for one's self but for one's children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. How little there is, besides this, that any of us may do which will last so long a time.

"Somewhere there is a war going on which threatens to engulf us all. That war will have been forgotten . . . reduced to musty history . . . to singing recitations by generations of school children as yet unborn . . . before the trees we planted last spring have reached maturity.

"Today, he is lucky indeed who can see ahead, in his own life, for even a few years. And trees must be planted in faith, faith in an ever-consistent and ever-forgiving mother earth . . . and faith in the unborn generations of man."

"We also sell subscriptions and advertising, both of which are considered good investments from the point of view of the most for your money. We don't know how anybody can get more out of his money than buying an ad in our paper. One man advertised prefabricated banana storage sheds with us

From the Files of 25 and 50 Years Ago

JANUARY 15, 1926

There was a good market last Saturday and a big crowd of people in town. There were lots of buyers and sellers for eggs and butter. The hucksters paid from 40 to 45 cents for both. Townspeople paid from 42 to 47 cents for butter and 45 cents for eggs. Chickens sold from 25 to 32 cents lb., geese from 20 to 25 cents a lb.

A meeting of the directors of the Newmarket Hotel Company was held Tuesday evening at the King George hotel. Officers re-elected for 1926 were: pres., Dr. Boyd; vice pres., Jos. Cody; sec-treas., and managing director, O. E. Tench.

Mr. Harry Gilman, local representative of the Canada Life Assurance Company, won a trip to Quebec and will be a guest of the company at the Chateau Frontenac for a week. During the past year, Mr. Gilman had sold a quarter million insurance.

A dance was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bellamy, Sharon, in honor of Miss Maggie Williams' birthday. The music was supplied by Ed Williams, Sharon, and Eddy Gibson, Newmarket. Sid Legge, Newmarket, was caller.

There are 40 students enrolled in the home nursing classes being held in town by the Red Cross Society. Instructors are Mrs. G. L. McClellan, Mrs. S. R. Janes and Miss Niles. Dr. Scott will lecture on communicable diseases.

Miss Black, Yonge St., Aurora, left for Florida on Tuesday and will spend the winter months at St. Petersburg and Clearwater.

Miss Banks, returned missionary from India, was the guest of Mrs. Gowland during her stay in town.

WHY WAIT FOR GOVERNMENT?

The advice given the Newmarket Lions club last week by Mr. Cameron McTaggart is worthy of the consideration of all district residents. There is much, he said, that individuals can do to foster conservation practices. There is no need to wait upon the government for direction.

Tre planting is, we would suppose, the first thought that comes to the mind of the urban dweller, and rural dweller, too, judging by the great demand for seedlings from the province. Tre planting not only has a very real place in conservation but there is considerable personal satisfaction to be derived from it, as witness the clipping quoted in the Editor's Notebook.

Mr. McTaggart's insistence upon individual initia-

THURSDAY, THE EIGHTEENTH DAY OF JANUARY, NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY-ONE

COUNCIL SHOULD STATE POLICY

A major obstacle in the smooth operation of the Newmarket arena is that the commission apparently has never been told by council what policy is to be followed. The arena carries a heavy burden of debt. There are the debentures issued for its purchase; the debentures issued for the installation of artificial ice; and there are the normal operating costs. Is the arena to be considered as a strictly commercial venture, required to pay off its debt as quickly as possible? Or is it to be considered as a community project, with the maximum of cheap community use taking precedent over debt retirement? The point has never been satisfactorily cleared up.

Most of those, if not all, who contributed money and labor towards the installation of artificial ice did so under the impression that the arena was to be considered a community project. They argue, with some justice, that if the arena is to be operated as a commercial venture, their contributions should be also considered as a reasonable debt, to be paid by arena earnings. They argue further that their volunteer efforts represent payment in advance for cheap rink usage which is not being given.

And it was understood, if only for the lack of a definite statement to the contrary, that if the arena while giving the maximum of cheap community use were to end its year's operations in the red, the council would pick up the tab as a matter of public service.

These considerations, to the best of our recollection, have never been given a thorough airing and they should be if the arena commission is to have a definite policy in its operations. The place to settle the question is in the town council. Despite contention to the contrary, the town does own the arena, and the commission is simply an agent of the council. It remains for the council to determine how the arena should be operated, and for the commission to follow the council's decision.

CIVIL DEFENCE NEEDS

Talk of civil defence for Newmarket and Aurora may seem far-fetched to a good many. It is unbelievable that these towns, whose last direct contact with martial matters was in the Rebellion of 1837, should have to consider measures for protection against the enemy. But there is no security to be found in current news bulletins and a few simple preparations now might prevent considerable anguish in the future.

In Midland, despite the lack of direction from federal and provincial authorities, considerable progress has been made in the preliminary organization of a civilian defence establishment. The work is proceeding under the direction of a citizens' committee and following the proposals of a local industrial manager.

Midland can hardly be compared to Newmarket and Aurora as a military target. The former is a ship-building centre and its choice as a target is far more likely than the two north York centres, but there are several aspects of Midland organization which could be followed here. Their plans call for organizing all transport and communication under a deputy; emergency clothing, billeting and education are grouped under another deputy; a third concerns himself with medical matters; a fourth is concerned with damage control and the fifth with police.

Newmarket and Aurora might borrow from Midland plans for organizing emergency accommodation and communication, although the other aspects should be given some thought. In event of war, there is always the possibility of harassing raids such as were carried out over England, and damage control, policing and emergency medical aid, if the need for them ever arose, could alleviate much distress.

Mr. Henry Rhinehart has opened up a shoe shop at the north end next to Denne's packing house.

tive might be extended with equal force to include municipalities. Certainly, the admonition of "don't wait, do it yourself" has direct application to Newmarket and Aurora who share the same problems of maintaining water sources, and are close enough to permit co-operation in their solution.

There does exist, within the framework of provincial legislation, the means to establish a conservation commission for the Holland River watershed. Two years ago, possibly it is three, the means of organizing such a commission were explained to an Aurora audience, and some months later, an organization meeting was called. Under the terms of the legislation, all municipalities touching the watershed had an immediate concern with the commission. In the case of the Holland River, that included Tecumseh and Albion townships in the next county. When there wasn't a quorum, the meeting was postponed, as it turned out, indefinitely.

But if a large-scale effort as was originally proposed is a failure, why couldn't a small-scale attempt be made? Newmarket, Aurora, Whitchurch, King and East Gwillimbury are closest to the river. Even if without government approval, these five might establish an informal working group which could encourage the larger formation, and in the meantime, learn to work together on the problems they all share.

At least a start would be made.

INFLATION RED WEAPON

A major threat to our resistance against communism is inflation. The economic system of Canada and other free countries can be wrecked by a runaway dollar. Mr. Bruce Hutchinson, writing in a recent issue of Maclean's, says inflation can become Stalin's secret weapon. "He knows that, but so far, we don't."

The buying power of the Canadian dollar in 1947 when controls were lifted was 79 cents compared to its 1939 value. At the end of 1950, it had fallen to 58 cents. Translated into terms of buying power, you have the following comparisons: income in Canada per capita in 1939 was $386; in 1945, $804; in 1949, $984. But the 1945 income could only buy $671 worth of goods, and the 1949 income could only buy $589 worth of goods at 1939 prices. This means that the average Canadian had 50 percent more buying power in 1945 than in 1939, and 12 percent less in 1949 than in 1945.

EDITORIAL NOTES

If we as a nation insist upon doing less and less for a dollar, says Mr. B. C. Gardner, we can hardly complain if a dollar does less and less for us.

The representatives of Toronto and York county are meeting together behind closed doors in an effort to reach an amicable settlement of the amalgamation issue. It is a far better effort than calling each other names at municipal board hearings, although the latter served the purpose of bringing out pros and cons not otherwise considered.

There's talk of a super-market in a Toronto suburb which would be an entire business section in itself with several kinds of stores and services all lumped together with adequate parking facilities and convenient approaches. The project is worth the earnest consideration of merchants in Newmarket and Aurora. A super-market built within ten or 15 miles of these two points would draw away considerable trade. Every way a small town merchant can improve his services and the services his town can offer is an investment in the future. The provision of attractive shopping in the home-town is the surest guarantee against the threat of super-market competition.

The services of the York County Health unit suggest that those municipalities not yet members of the unit should give serious consideration to joining it at an early date.

The insistence of the American chiefs of staff that they will not abandon Korea is spoken with a fine, fighting determination, but there is still some doubt if it is the wisest course. One sure way of crippling America's strength is to engage it in costly wars of attrition on the perimeter of red Asia. Korea, it is argued, has little strategic value and it would be pointless to waste men and arms fighting overwhelming numbers of Chinese Reds when those men and arms were better used to repel a Russian attack in Europe.

Office Cat Reports Catnips By Ginger

Slim Bliggens went to the city today to offer junior's services to the C.B.C. at a price.

I and Slim had talked over the problem of junior's genius over the weekend. The ace reporter, we had discovered, was not a reporter at all but a true poet who wrote verse libre or unlibre without scanting.

"Is it worth it?" Slim had asked the other morning while he slowly lit up his favorite after breakfast El Pando cigar.

"Worth it!" I cried. "He is an utter genius."

"That's the whole trouble, just another genius. They're so many of them nowadays that they're bein' commercialized, mostly in music circles and IQ. contests."

"You are wrong," said I. "He is a true genius like before they started commercializing them. He is of the ilk of Sheets and Kelley and Burnson and guys like that."

"Okay, I'll be his agent," Slim agreed.

So it was that Slim went to the city today and sought out a C.B.C. executive named Elwood Avitt to try and get junior on the Rawham Show.

This would be our plan. Slim would be the publicity agent. Your favorite correspondent would be chief accountant in charge of the cash of the enterprise. Junior would be the silent partner and earn his ten percent on a trial basis.

We had rehearsed junior. He recited his original balaad, Quaint Geraint's Lament to his Horse Dying of Hoot and Mouth Disease. Soft organ reveries murmured an accompaniment. Slim Bliggens took the recording to Elwood Avitt.

Elwood Avitt listened to the recording and then stood on his ear and listened again. Not satisfied, he called in another executive named Don de Draine who called in four radio anouncers who summoned the techie technician, Mike Raphone, and sound effects man Buzz Tuppit.

Each in turn placed his finger tips to his temple and listened, uttering queer sounds, showing the whites of his eyes as if it was a terrible artistic strain.

"Team-back!" cried Elwood Avitt and the gathering of radio people clustered around his desk with their arms on each other's shoulders. Then a little spokesman came out of the huddle and announced the decision of junior's audition: "No".

Then each in turn walked backwards out of the room bowing and hissing.

"Queer ones, them articians," said Slim.

"We in radio must be queer to survive," said Elwood Avitt. "It is just one mad battle to see who can be the queerest. Once you start being queer, you can never turn back. You must go on being queer and queerer. It's like taking dope. Of course there are those who never start and they can get along without it. They are accepted too but only a few can stay away from it."

Slim returned from the city a different man. He just sat inside at his piano box mansion, smoked his El Pando and stared.

Slowly, he said to me, "I resign as junior's agent. I am beginning to understand some things. Us fellers in rural places is too normal to cope with this new breed of men. We depend on bein' what we is and they depend on bein' what they ain't which confuses things a bit. I will have to take some time to study the psychology of this new breed of men. Then I will let you know what my decision is."

Meanwhile, junior continues to be an unrecognized genius.

by "Dairy Farmer" The Top Six Inches

We dislike the "one tune columnist" because we feel that he is a close relation to the writer of radio commercials. We also feel that there is a lot still to be said about rural housing without repeating anything already said.

We are becoming convinced that providing housing in rural areas is the most important step towards the solution of the rural labor problem. We have to have more houses but who is going to provide them? We doubt if we could get any government action.

Rural housing should be decentralized and away from rural centres. It shouldn't just be an extra house on each farm. It should be something in-between. All over the country there are "corners". In the old days they had the blacksmith shop and maybe the gristmill, and a hotel. Today they have a general store and a garage and a few houses. These locations would be ideal for groups of houses, four or five in number, to house farm labor. Certain services would be available. They are usually close enough to a school. They are often on paved county roads or road maintained in good shape all year around. Farm labor living in these homes could provide a pool for an area or say two to three miles around it. Farmers and business men, whose livelihood depends entirely on the rural buying public, could get together and acquire the land and by a co-operative effort build these houses from lumber often available on the farm woodlot, or from lumber that would be cut locally. Under the leadership of a community group these houses could be built with less expense, say two to three thousand dollars each.

Well, it may never happen. Maybe there are other solutions, cheaper and maybe we are still living in a world of individual enterprise and maybe it is still simpler to offer the neighbor's hired man $10 a month more or apply for a single man from Europe under contract at $15 a month. But they won't stay, and maybe another neighbor will offer $5 more for our man, and he will go again. The solution we are trying to suggest is a permanent one, because it is a way of living and acting as a community, and a community can find a permanent solution to a problem, where an individual can only find a temporary one.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

An Aurora Opinion

By

DOROTHY BARKER

Aurora Editor

Somewhere in the files stored in the clerk's office is a by-law, reputed to be 25 years old. It will probably be brought out, dusted off and carefully perused before the next council meeting. This by-law, if in existence as it is claimed, will emphasize the fact that even a quarter of a century ago there was a council which considered that home owners who invest thousands of dollars in their property should be protected.

Is Aurora going to suffer the St. problem reviewed, we must in headaches of growing pains that all fairness to the residents and have been the major ailments of municipalities closer to Toronto, or are we going to benefit by the mistakes that have been made in other communities?

A protest has been made to council by residents of Kennedy St. against a proposed crowded sub-division, with a request for a restrictive by-law. This should be seriously considered, even though it too will eventually be filed in the limbo of the town's archives. The old by-law it is said, merely states that houses must conform in structure with others in the area. It does not mention the size of the lot. The land use by-law states that a 50' frontage is the minimum required for building purposes. Neither of these documents control the problem that has arisen in the presently high assessment area.

It is quite possible that men and women who are elected to council do not always give serious thought to the fact that their opinions affect the town for years to come. They are quite conscientious about today's problems but do they always exercise a long-range view?

Commending the mayor for his sense of fair play with regard to having both sides of the Kennedy

St. protest.

Whether the present problem reaches an amicable settlement or not a by-law should still be enacted to create a restricted area because, from a financial point of view, a high assessment area is good business and an asset to any town.

Ridges Board Ask S. S. 13 Take 45 Pupils By March 1, Say There's No Other Answer

The trustee board of Oak Ridges school has appealed to the trustee board of S. S. 13, Whitchurch, to take over about 45 Lake Wilcox children by March 1. "We are beaten right now in an effort to solve the problem of overcrowding," trustee Bob Woolley, Ridges board, stated.

"We feel the only solution to relieve grades 4, 5 and 6 is to seek help from the lake trustees who have been requested to provide accommodation for this number by spring."

Operating on a full-time basis, these grades are hardest hit, Mr. Woolley explained. In one of them, there are from 38 to 40 pupils enrolled with only 28 to 30 seats. "They sit double at single desks. There is no space for better accommodation." Teachers and students are working at great disadvantage. Only the extreme nature of the situation has led Oak Ridges trustees to seek help, members of the board said. It is felt that by early spring provision of a classroom at the lake could be made by S. S. 13 when heating facilities at that time of year would present no serious problem.

Lions Sponsor Hockey

Oak Ridges Lions hockey teams are displaying high interest as 40 or more young boys take an hour and a half practice at Aurora arena every Saturday afternoon. Rink rental is sponsored by the Lions who donate private cars to transport the boys to Aurora. To provide funds to meet arena rental a series of euchres, cribbage and bingo games have been set up for the coming weeks.

On Monday evening at Ridge Inn, 80 were present for 12 euchres, five cribbage and bingo, giving the club $55 profit, which tions from local or district homes would be gladly accepted.

Will Contribute to W.I.
King W.I. agreed to turn in 50 percent of its membership tax to the York scholarship fund of $2,000 from the four districts. In communication from the Centre York secretary, Mrs. Fred Hare, Temperanceville, it was pointed out that with a total membership of 2,000 in the four Yorks, presidents and secretaries had deemed it advisable to raise the fund by a tax of $1 per member, with the option of paying off by branches in the full amount of membership in 1951 by contributing 50 percent this year with the balance assumed for the following year. King branch will pay in $35 or more in the first year. Its membership is 70 or slightly over.

Branch members were urged to attend the district W.I. service on "Foods that healthy children like," to be held at Aurora United church, February 21. Miss Barbara Broadfoot, Home Economics and Service department of the provincial agriculture department, will conduct the sessions.

The branch was informed that a visit from the district president, Mrs. R. C. Baycroft, Gormley, is now available.

Laskay W.I. Views Itself
The far-reaching effect of community activities and public relations of Laskay W.I. branch was outlined by Mrs. Leslie Glass to members at a meeting January 9. A community is as broad as its individual thinking. Its activity is measured by the interest and effort that goes into community affairs, the speaker pointed out. Relations of a W.I. organization to the public constitutes a never-ending circle of associations at home and abroad. Specifically, the local W.I. hall project represents an outlet for activities for branch, churches, the old boys' association, plowmen's association and other groups.

This form of entertainment was part of a program carried out on January 9, based on historical research and current events, the latter taken by Miss Lily Anderson who highlighted world affairs, international, dominion and provincial events. Mrs. Gordon Wells enlarged on the motto, "He who lives only in his own generation remains a child". The correlation of the past with the present is a means of understanding life as it goes on today. The sum total of appreciation of the times in which one lives must be coupled with knowledge of past history, the speaker pointed out.

Plans for a rummage sale, homebaking sale and afternoon tea to be held on Thursday, Jan. 25, in the basement of King United church were completed by the branch. All articles for the rummage table are to be given to Mrs. J. L. Grew on January 24 when they will be classified and priced for sale on the following day. Articles of good used clothing, children's outgrown garments, sports equipment, gen bottles, cooking utensils, are only a few that could be forwarded to Mrs. Grew. Rummage collec-

With the renovation of the hall completed, the erection of a community flag would arouse the patriotic admiration of the district. The building of new homes, change of farm lands to new owners, the close proximity of Laskay to the new super highway tend to broaden interests, giving the rural village a place in Ontario's list of "little notables".

Handicrafts or hobbies are vitally important to the W.I. member.

Active membership in Kingcrafts Guild is an indication of the useful pleasure one gains from applying one's talents in a community sense.

songs typical of northern Ontario lumbering districts. He told stories how he had started in the lumbering industry at the age of 14, running logs, later working in the sawmills, his job as a "walking boss", all of which depicted the life of a lumber jack. Mr. Harnden, who was a radio artist, also displayed his talent as a ventriloquist.

The ladies served lunch to which Mrs. Kelly Woolnough and Mrs. S. C. Snively added their contribution. Captain Hawman donated soft drinks.

Mrs. D. R. Gunn will attend Provincial Executive sessions of the Ontario Council Girl Guides Association in Toronto, on January 27 and 28. On Saturday, the delegation will be taken to Malton it will be retained in Ontario for a few weeks, and returned to England. It is the hope of York division to have the scroll displayed at Richmond Hill before it returns to the homeland.

Mrs. William Ashby, Wildwood Ave., Lake Wilcox, is still confined to her home from an illness which overcame her at Christmas, followed by a relapse a week later.

JOHN H. MOLYNEAUX

For years a well known merchant on Main St., Newmarket, John Hamilton Molyneaux died at Resthaven, Aurora, on Jan. 3. He had been suffering from a heart condition since 1947.

He was born at Kazarazua, Que., son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Molyneaux, on March 16, 1876. On Nov. 27, 1900, he married Anna C. Cryderman. He was an adherent of Trinity United church. His chief interests lay in his family and his church.

He is survived by two sons, H. Arnold and Lawrence S., two brothers, Albert and Samuel, and three sisters, Annie Britton, L. Peck and Emma Cryderman.

Rev. Henry Cotton conducted the funeral service at the chapel of Roadhouse and Rose on Jan. 5. Interment was in Newmarket cemetery. Pallbearers were Art Rose, Frank Robinson, Joe Smith, Joe Spillette, Max Smith and Elgin Evans.

OBITUARY

H. F. D. GARDNER

One time printer in the Newmarket Era, Herbert F. D. Gardner, Bradford, died Jan. 8 after a short illness. More recently, he had been a merchant in Bradford, but at one time, he had been an iron moulder, and then a printer at the Era where he learned his trade under the late Lyman Jackson, then publisher.

While in Newmarket, he was secretary of the Newmarket Fire brigade for many years.

Born in Ringwood in 1877, the son of the late Thomas Gardner, he married Bertha Kirby, who, with a son, Thomas and a daughter, Ada, survive him.

He was a member of the I.O.O.F. for over 40 years and a member of the Woodmen of the World.

He was predeceased by six brothers and two sisters.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. F. G. MacTavish from his home in Bradford on Thursday, Jan. 11. Interment was in Newmarket cemetery. Pallbearers were Fred Cook, B. B. Collings, M. Belfrey, John Harrison, John Depew and A. Hammell.

PHOEBE NEWTON

Phoebe Chant Newton died at St. Michael's hospital in Toronto on Dec. 31 after an illness of four months. She had lived in King township for 25 years, moving to Yonge St. at Armitage three years ago.

Born in Guilford, Surrey, England, the daughter of Alice and Frederick Chant, in 1885, she had married Joseph Newton in 1902. She was identified with the Church of England, and her chief interests lay with her home and garden.

She is survived by four sons, Clarence, Fred, Frank and Reg, and a daughter, Rose, two grandchildren, two brothers, George Chant, Newmarket, and Frederick, England, and two sisters, Mrs. Jennie Harden and Mrs. Minnie Hudson, England.

Rev. James T. Rhodes conducted the funeral service on Jan. 2, and interment was in Newmarket cemetery. Pallbearers were Elton Armstrong, Ross Black, J. P. Jefferson, Fred Thompson, Gordon Beckett and Howard Buscombe.

OBITUARY

Joseph Dale

The funeral service was held for Joseph Dale, Schomberg, on Jan. 1. He died, following a lengthy illness, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clarence Breedon, on highway No. 9, on Dec. 29.

Born in Tecumseh township in 1887, the son of May Stephenson and William Dale, he had been a farmer for 45 years on the farm where he passed away. He was identified with Rich Hill United church.

Besides his daughter, Mrs. Breedon, he is survived by one grand-daughter and two great-grandchildren.

The funeral service was conducted at the home of Mrs. Breedon by Rev. James Dorian, Tottenham, and interment was in the Tottenham cemetery. Six nephews were pallbearers: Albert Hitchman, Nelson Hunt, George Parr, Bill Lipsett, Harold Leppard and Walter McLean.

OBITUARY

Mrs. M. Drotterton

Mrs. Margaret Drotterton died at her home on Clark St. in Elyria, Ohio, following a lingering illness, on December 23.

Born in Maybole, Scotland, on June 27, 1892, the oldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Allan McGhee, she had lived in Elyria for the past 35 years. She was a member of the United Presbyterian church.

She is survived by her husband, William R. Drotterton, a son Edward and daughter, Mrs. Earl Eddington, all of Elyria, and four grandchildren, four brothers, John and Harry, Hamilton, Joseph, Aurora and James, Newmarket, and two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Blair, and Mrs. Howard Williamson, both of Newmarket.

ST. JAME'S W.A.
INSTALLS OFFICERS

The first meeting of the New Year was held on Jan. 10 at the home of Mrs. N. Mabbett, Newmarket. There were 15 members present and guests were Rev. M. C. D. Hutt and Miss Kay Grose.

After the president opened the meeting with prayer, Mrs. W. Osler read the scripture. Another chapter from the study book entitled "The Old and the New in Arabia", was read by Mrs. Joe Hall. The treasurer's report was given showing a balance on hand Jan. 1 of $200.84.

Rev. Hutt conducted the installation of officers for 1951 after which the president, Mrs. F. Hall, gave a short resume of the past year's activities.

The membership fees were taken and Rev. Hutt closed the meeting.

The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Kiteley. Hostesses will be Mrs. N. Mabbett, Mrs. I. Steckley and Mrs. A. Thomas.

AUXILIARY INSTALLS
NEW OFFICERS

Mrs. Bert Budd was elected president of the Evening Branch of the W.A. of St. Paul's Anglican church, Newmarket, when the group held its annual meeting at the rectory on Monday, Jan. 15. Rev. J. T. Rhodes conducted the installation of officers.

The following ladies were elected: past pres., Mrs. J. T. Rhodes; pres., Mrs. Bert Budd; sec., Mrs. Bruce Hunter; treas., Mrs. Horace Hiscox; Dorcas secretary, Mrs. Harold Evans.

A presentation was made by Mrs. Budd on behalf of the group to Mrs. Gran Dillane of a brass wall jardiniere. Mr. and Mrs. Dillane and family leave on Monday, Jan. 22, for Guelph where they will make their home. In making the presentation, Mrs. Budd said that Mrs. Dillane's going would be a great loss to the church where she has been such a faithful worker.

Light refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Rhodes, and a pleasant social hour was spent.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

The Evening Branch of the W.A. held its annual meeting last Monday at the rectory, and the Parochial Guild held its annual meeting on Tuesday evening, also at the rectory. The Afternoon branch of the W.A. held its annual meeting in the Parish hall last Thursday afternoon and as many as conveniently could remained for tea and held a Dorcas meeting in the evening. This evening the Sunday School Deany meeting is being held at Richmond Hill at 8 o'clock in St. Mary's Parish hall.

Next Sunday will be Septuagesima Sunday with Holy communion at 8:30 and again at 11 o'clock. Monday, Jan. 29, is the date of the annual Vestry meeting, and Feb. 11 will be Confirmation by Bishop Beverley, while on Feb. 18, at the morning service, we will have for our guest preacher Rev. M. Wilkinson, associate secretary of G.B.R. E. and C.S.S. of our church. At the morning service on Feb. 11 the guest preacher will be Rev. Nadakavakon I. Joseph, B.A., graduate of Madras University, and formerly a member of the Assyrian church of South India.

DEMONSTRATION

A demonstration of nylonware was held at the home of Mrs. Merlyn Widdifield on Monday, Jan. 15. Over 50 items were shown by Mrs. Howard Morgan, Gormley, in the interesting collection. There were about 25 present. A pleasant evening was spent with lunch being served by the hostess after the demonstration.

SCOUT-GUIDE MOTHERS

The Scout-Guide Mothers' auxiliary met in the scout hall on Monday, Jan. 8. Mrs. B. L. Sinclair presided over the brief business session. A busy evening was spent with the ladies checking and cleaning the flatware.

3.P.W. HEAR TALK
ON PUBLIC SPEAKING

The Newmarket Business and Professional Women's club met at the King George hotel for the regular dinner meeting on Monday, Jan. 15. Miss Laura Whitfield presided.

The guest speaker was Dr. C. E. Vandervoort. Mrs. Doris Blair made a delightful introduction of the speaker who highly praised her efforts in his opening remarks. Dr. Vandervoort then proceeded with other interesting and enlightening particulars regarding parliamentary procedure, public speaking and thanking a guest speaker. Using the recommended style, Miss Norine Ayers thanked Dr. Vandervoort on behalf of the club.

Some questions from the Information Please box were discussed with the president, Miss Whitfield as chairman.

GIVE $10

A donation of $10 was made by the Newmarket Business and Professional Women's club at its January meeting to the March of Dimes campaign. The appeal for funds is being sponsored locally by the Optimist club.

PLEASANTVILLE

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Ewart, Newmarket, included Mr. and Mrs. C. Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Greenwood and Charles.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Sheridan were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Smith and family of Sharon.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Leask, Leaskdale, visited at the home of Mr. E. Toole on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Gardner, Toronto, were guests at Mr. W. Glover's on Sunday.

KETTLEBY

We are glad to report Mrs. Gordon MacLean is home from the General hospital where she underwent a major operation and is steadily gaining health.

Mrs. Gordon MacLean and family wish to thank all their friends and neighbors for their many kindnesses during her recent illness.

The annual meeting of Christ church Ladies' Guild was held at the home of Mrs. F. Beatty on Tuesday, Jan. 9. A good report of the year's work was given by the secretary, Mrs. N. Greensides, and the financial report by the treasurer, Miss C. Sharpe.

Donations were sent to the following: Manitoba Relief Fund, $25; Hospital for Sick Children, $25; Institute for the Blind, $10. Mrs. F. Crane, flower conserver, gave her report on cards sent to the sick and shut-ins, also flowers and fruit.

All officers were returned by election. It was decided to make "talent money" again this year and several members promised to subscribe to the one cent a day fund. As many of our younger members are now working and unable to attend day meetings, it was suggested we have some evening meetings during the summer months to give them an opportunity to take part in our work. Names of officers are: pres., Mrs. R. Archibald; sec., Mrs. N. Greensides; treas., Miss C. Sharpe; work and flower conserver, Mrs. F. Crane; altar guild, Mrs. J. Harmon and Mrs. C. Wilson.

The Common Round...

By Isabel Inglis Colville

A MEDLEY

When I wrote that title I wasn't thinking of a group of songs or melodies such as we hear sometimes played or sung on the radio—and let no one think such numbers are easy. Changes of tempo and key keep players especially on the alert.

What I was really thinking of was just writing a few impressions gathered here and there of this and that.

During the pre-Christmas week and on Christmas itself, one heard so much singing—some of it very beautiful, wonderful and inspiring like the Hallelujah Chorus and Hansel and Gretel, and some just delightful like the well loved and well known carols which everyone loves because they can take part in them. But some, heard on the radio and purporting to be carols were so twisted as to time that one felt like smashing the radio.

We heard some lovely children's choirs at home and from abroad and I noticed one thing particularly in the English choirs. The enunciation and articulation were beautiful. We have thought, Archie and I, and still think that our schools fall far below what they should do, in the matter of speech. How very few people, old or young, have been taught to make their voices carry, without being over loud or strained.

Those who take up oratorical contests get the training but what of the rest—they, most of them at any rate—have to make themselves heard at some time in their lives and if their voices are pleasant and their enunciation and pronunciation correct, it will all be to the good.

Children are so imitative that it is not hard to guide them into paths of pleasant speech.

Hope for 'Monotones'

And there is hope now for the children whom in the past their parents would tell you, could not sing a note. Usually they sing everything on one note and we call them monotones. Archie and I, years ago, when we had a group of children coming to our home, had met and conquered this defect in one or two and Mrs. Gene Cane with whom I was discussing this last summer, said that in the course of her teaching she had met with a few such cases and had been able to correct the strange disability which is so hard on a teacher—especially if she has a group of children and one or two of them are monotones and quite unconscious of the havoc they are creating.

I heard of a whole family of children so afflicted and the struggle their mother was putting up to try and correct the defect. She was seeking for literature on the subject and also was going to send some of them—there were seven—to a specialist in this work. To me, a voice is a wonderful and a beautiful thing and a God-given talent, and should be thought of, cherished and cultivated accordingly.

IT'S A Woman's World

By CAROLINE ION

The news that more snow has fallen during the night is greeted with varying reactions. To some it presents a picture of too short-lived beauty which far outweighs any inconveniences such a snowfall may cause.

To the one responsible for clearing the walks, it means another session of shovelling. It never ceases to amaze one that anything which appears so airy and fluffy as newly fallen snow should gradually assume such burdensome weight with each successive shovelful. Where's the liniment?

To the children it means hours of fun with their toboggans, skis and sleighs. In their anxiety to get out-of-doors they can barely restrain their exuberance while finishing their breakfast. Perhaps in that far-away glance lie plans for a snow fort with its accompanying snowballing.

To the motorist it means icy windshields, slippery roads and the need for greater caution than at any other time of the year. The hazards of winter driving are too apparent to need mentioning. Perhaps it is this combination of the children's delight in the arrival of snow and the increased difficulties which confront the driver which results in more traffic accidents involving children during the winter months.

Reports from the provincial department of highways indicate that such is the case and urge greater caution on drivers and pedestrians, particularly children during the winter months. It is not fair to leave all the responsibility to the motorist. Even the most efficient operator may be prevented from stopping his vehicle in time by road or weather conditions.

The onus rests with us as parents to teach our children the rules of traffic safety. We certainly do not want to shadow their enjoyment of their winter sports with the fear of mishap. But when we realize that in a year, over 2,000 school-age children are injured by traffic accidents in Ontario alone, we can appreciate the need for further instructions along these lines.

Nearly two-thirds of the accidents to children happened when the roads were wet, icy or slippery. Motorists can not stop or turn quickly on such road surfaces as on dry ones so children as well as adults should wait for a safe time to cross.

The streets were never meant to serve as a playground either for ball in summer or sleighing during the winter months. Darting out behind parked vehicles or other objects which obstruct the motorist's view is dangerous at all times. Jay walking is the cause of many more accidents.

The school grounds, back yard facilities and park areas in our town provide ample playground space for the youngsters and we parents should see that these, rather than the roads, are used. By teaching our children the prescribed precautionary measures we can assist in cutting this accident rate. By practising the rules ourselves we shall lend weight to our words of caution and instruction.

PLAN RED CROSS ANNUAL MEET FEB. 13

At the executive meeting of the Newmarket Red Cross, held last week, a report was given of donation of clothes, bedding, pillows and quilts to the Sargent family who were burned out before Christmas.

The Red Cross has redecorated and are refurbishing the three-bed Red Cross room at the York County hospital with blankets, drapes, rods, cupboards, chairs and lamps.

The annual meeting will be held on Tuesday, Feb. 1.

LETTER FROM KOREA

A letter to the Newmarket Legion branch was received last week from Korea. Pte. Bill Denne, who is now in Korea, thanked the Legion for a Christmas parcel which he received in good condition overseas.

Make It With Pork

"Bacon" at one time meant the meat of the pig whether fresh or cured, and all portions of the animal. The use of the word is now narrowed to mean only the cured side or back. "Pork" should cover all the flesh of pigs, whether fresh or cured but in practice it usually applies only to the fresh meat. Cured ham is called "ham" and the fresh meat must be designated "fresh ham". But whatever it is called, the meat of the pig is an excellent food.

The first rule in cooking pork is that it must be cooked well. There is no place in the diet for "rare" roast pork. No trace of pink coloring should remain. The oven temperature for roasting fresh pork should never be higher than 350°, and it will require about 40 minutes to the pound.

There are many ways in which fresh pork may be cooked. In China, pork is used extensively in various types of stews. When these dishes are made in Canada we keep the Chinese names although there may be changes in the ingredients to suit the available food supply. The results however are usually excellent.

PORK CHOPS WITH SPINACH

6 pork chops, $\frac{1}{2}$ inch thick
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup finely chopped onion
 $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. salt

6 cups chopped spinach

$\frac{1}{2}$ cup soft fine bread crumbs

1 tsp. celery salt

1 tsp. salt

Dash pepper

2 eggs

Trim outer portion of fat from chops. Cut fat in small pieces and cook over low heat until melted. Add onions, cover and cook until clear. Remove onions and set aside. Brown chops in pan and season with $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. salt. Mix chopped spinach, cooked onion, bread crumbs, celery salt, salt, pepper and well beaten eggs. Pile mixture lightly in a greased, shallow baking dish. Place pork chops on top. Cover closely and bake in a moderate oven, 350°, for 1 hour or until chops are tender. Yield: six servings.

STUFFED PORK ROLL

2 tbsp. bacon dripping
1 onion, sliced
1 cup soft bread crumbs
1 chopped apple
 $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. salt
 $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. celery salt
2 tbsp. chopped parsley
1 large thin slice fresh pork (1/2 to 1/2 lb.)

Melt dripping, add sliced onion

BLANCHE MORTON WEDS C. N. TAYLOR

The marriage of Blanche Claudia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morton, Mount Albert, to Charles N. Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor, Sutton West, was solemnized Jan. 6 by Rev. Shapter, Mount Albert.

The bride wore a navy blue dress with navy blue accessories. Her flowers were rose buds, glads and fern. She completed her costume with a brown muskrat fur coat. Her bridesmaid was Jean Storey in powder blue dress with navy accessories and her flowers were yellow rose buds, glads and fern.

Best man was Howard Morris Morton.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The couple will live at Sutton. Guests attended from Toronto, Newmarket and Sutton.

W.A. ASSEMBLY MEET AT KETTLEBYE

The Women's Association of the Kettleby United church unit met in the hall Jan. 9, at 3 p.m. with the president, Mrs. L. V. Heacock, presiding, assisted in the worship period by Mrs. A. Marshall and Mrs. Wm. Hodgson. Mrs. Heacock advised that the Blue Cross fees should be in by Jan. 28.

It was decided to again have a bazaar, the tentative date, as last year, to be the second Saturday in Nov., and next month's shower will be handkerchiefs.

In order to suit all members at least part of the time, it was decided to alternate the time of meeting, one month to be in the evening, and the next to be in the afternoon, and for the most part light lunches rather than suppers be served.

Rev. D. G. Ray conducted the service of installation of officers after which Miss Mary Wassing sang "When Jesus Comes". At the end of the meeting the annual congregational supper was served.

Rev. D. Ray conducted the evening meeting and opened with a hymn and short worship service. Mr. F. Curls was appointed secretary for the meeting. Reports were heard from the choir, W.A., W.M.S., Mission Band, Sunday School, stewards,

YOUNG HOPEFULS BY DOROTHY MUIR BOWMAN

Paul Hedges '51 Resolution

Paul, nine years old, adds an amendment to his New Year's resolution—just in case it proves an obstacle in his life.

Paul's most aggravating habit of pushing aside his little five-year-old sister was called to his attention during the Christmas season—when hearts and souls are especially full of kindness toward others. So it happened that Paul was moved to make a resolution that would help him to be kinder to younger sister, Jane.

Instead of chasing Jane away every time she came near his work table, where he spent a great portion of his spare time building model boats and cars, Paul resolved: "I resolve to let Jane watch me build boats and cars".

Everyone approved of Paul's resolution and Jane was especially joyous with the privilege

The stewards retiring this year were Wm. Hodgson, Joe Day, Gordon Cook; the stewards elected were Fred Schmidt, Frank Billings, Lea Heacock. The elders retiring were Roy Geer and Ray Marshall. Elected were Wm. Hodgson and Joe Day. A board of trustees was appointed: M. Proctor, E. Blatchford, R. Geer, R. Marshall, B. Wood, Press convener, Mrs. G. Cambronne.

for the next boat to ascend the construction line.

Jane laughed and was blamed for everything. It was then that Paul decided on an amendment to his resolution, "I resolve to let Jane watch me build boats and cars—unless she bothers me". In explaining her sudden lack of interest in her brother's activities, Jane explained that Paul had spoiled her fun by putting "a dead bent" on his resolution.

Nevertheless, it was rather honorable of Paul to add an amendment instead of forgetting or discarding his resolution—even though the results do add up to the customary zero.

CANADIAN CHOW MEIN

3 cups sliced onion

1 cup chopped green pepper

3 tbsp. fat

2 cups diced cooked pork

2 tsp. salt

1 tsp. celery salt

3 tbsp. catsup

2 cups bouillon

1 cup peeled chopped apple

1 can bean sprouts

Cook onions and green pepper in fat until tender, about 5 minutes. Add pork, salt, pepper, celery salt, catsup and bouillon. Cover and simmer 25 minutes. Add chopped apple and drained bean sprouts and cook for 5 minutes. Serve with cooked noodles or rice. If desired, the meat may be garnished with slivered almonds. Soy sauce is the usual accompaniment. Yield: six servings.

Now there are two types of accessories—the purely decorative and the utilitarian. Regardless of which type you want to use, make a test of its fitness for your decorating scheme by asking yourself a few simple questions: Is it a thing of beauty? Is it appropriate for your room? Is it a good companion for your other accessories? Does it fit in with the color scheme of your room?

Color in crochet is particularly attractive and is becoming more and more popular. Not only in fashion accessories but also in articles for the home. With new building going on in all sections of the country, many families are busy turning houses into homes. There's a difference between a house and a home, you know, and it's an important difference. A house is made of bricks and plaster, cement and shingles but a home is built on love and understanding, mutual interests and family pride.

After furnishing your home with the essential large pieces will come the true test of your ingenuity in making your home the center of your family life. You'll want to express your own personality in your room by adding touches that reflect the taste and way of living of your family. This can be done most effectively in your choice of accessories.

The colorful doily shown here answers "yes" to all three questions. It is certainly a thing of beauty and will fit in with almost any type of room and most color schemes. The doily is inspired by the black-eyed Susan daisy and has a center motif and a border of the yellow-petaled flowers with their black centers. Might this be just the thing you'd like to enter in that Crochet Contest mentioned at the beginning of our chat. So if you would like to have directions for the BLACK-EDGED SUSAN DOILY, simply send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Dept. of this paper asking for Leaflet No. D-207.

A HOME TO LIVE IN

DESIGN A-194. An insulated concrete slab laid on a gravel fill forms the first floor. Heating and laundry equipment is housed in the utility room and 12 well-placed closets plus space in the large garage provides the storage room which is so important in a basementless house.

The two smaller bedrooms are separated by a folding partition and may be opened if desired. Closets are all of the wardrobe type which utilizes the space above for added storage.

The plan also shows a fireplace with book shelves and wood-box, picture window, entrance coat closets, generous cabinets and kitchen dining space.

Exterior finish is siding, asphalt shingles and stone facing in front.

Floor area is 1,132 sq. ft. with 12, 926 cu. ft. not including garage.

1950 WAS ANOTHER BUSY YEAR!

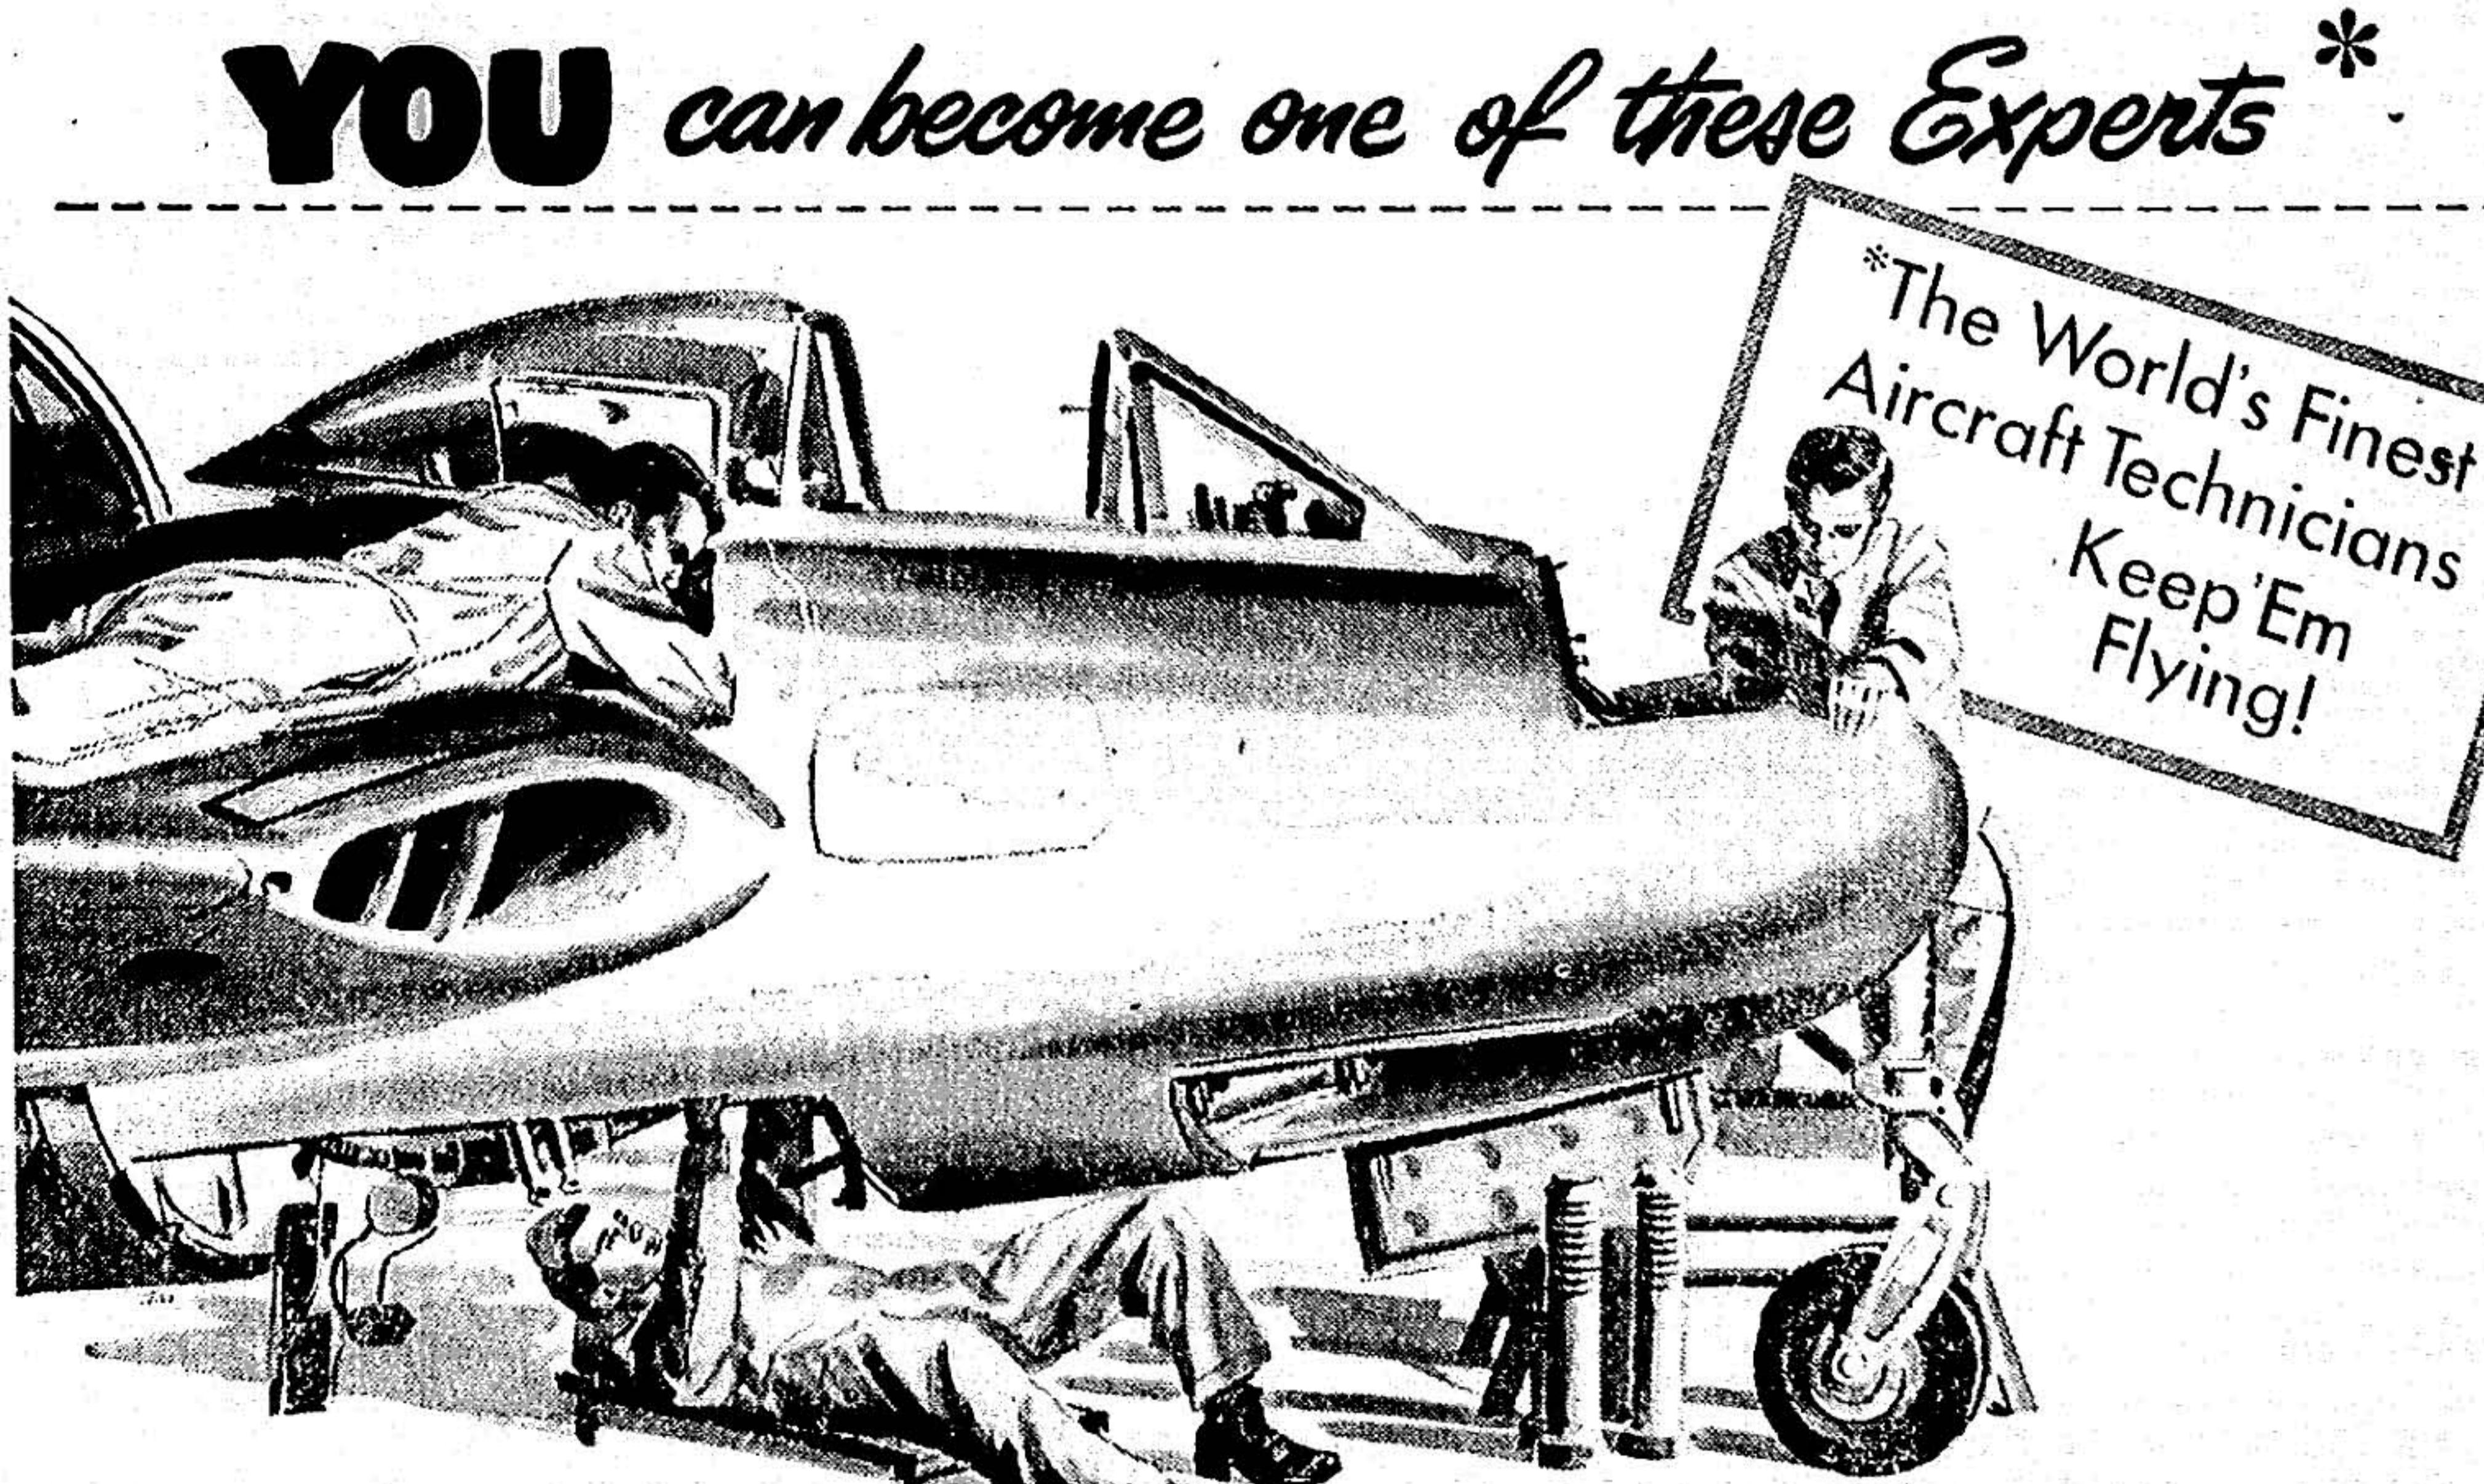

MORE PEOPLE used their telephones more than ever before. Calls made by you, your friends and neighbours helped swell the total to a new record — over 11 million calls a day.

And all the time new telephones were being added. Now you can reach more people; more people can reach you. In that way alone, telephone service became even more valuable to you in 1950.

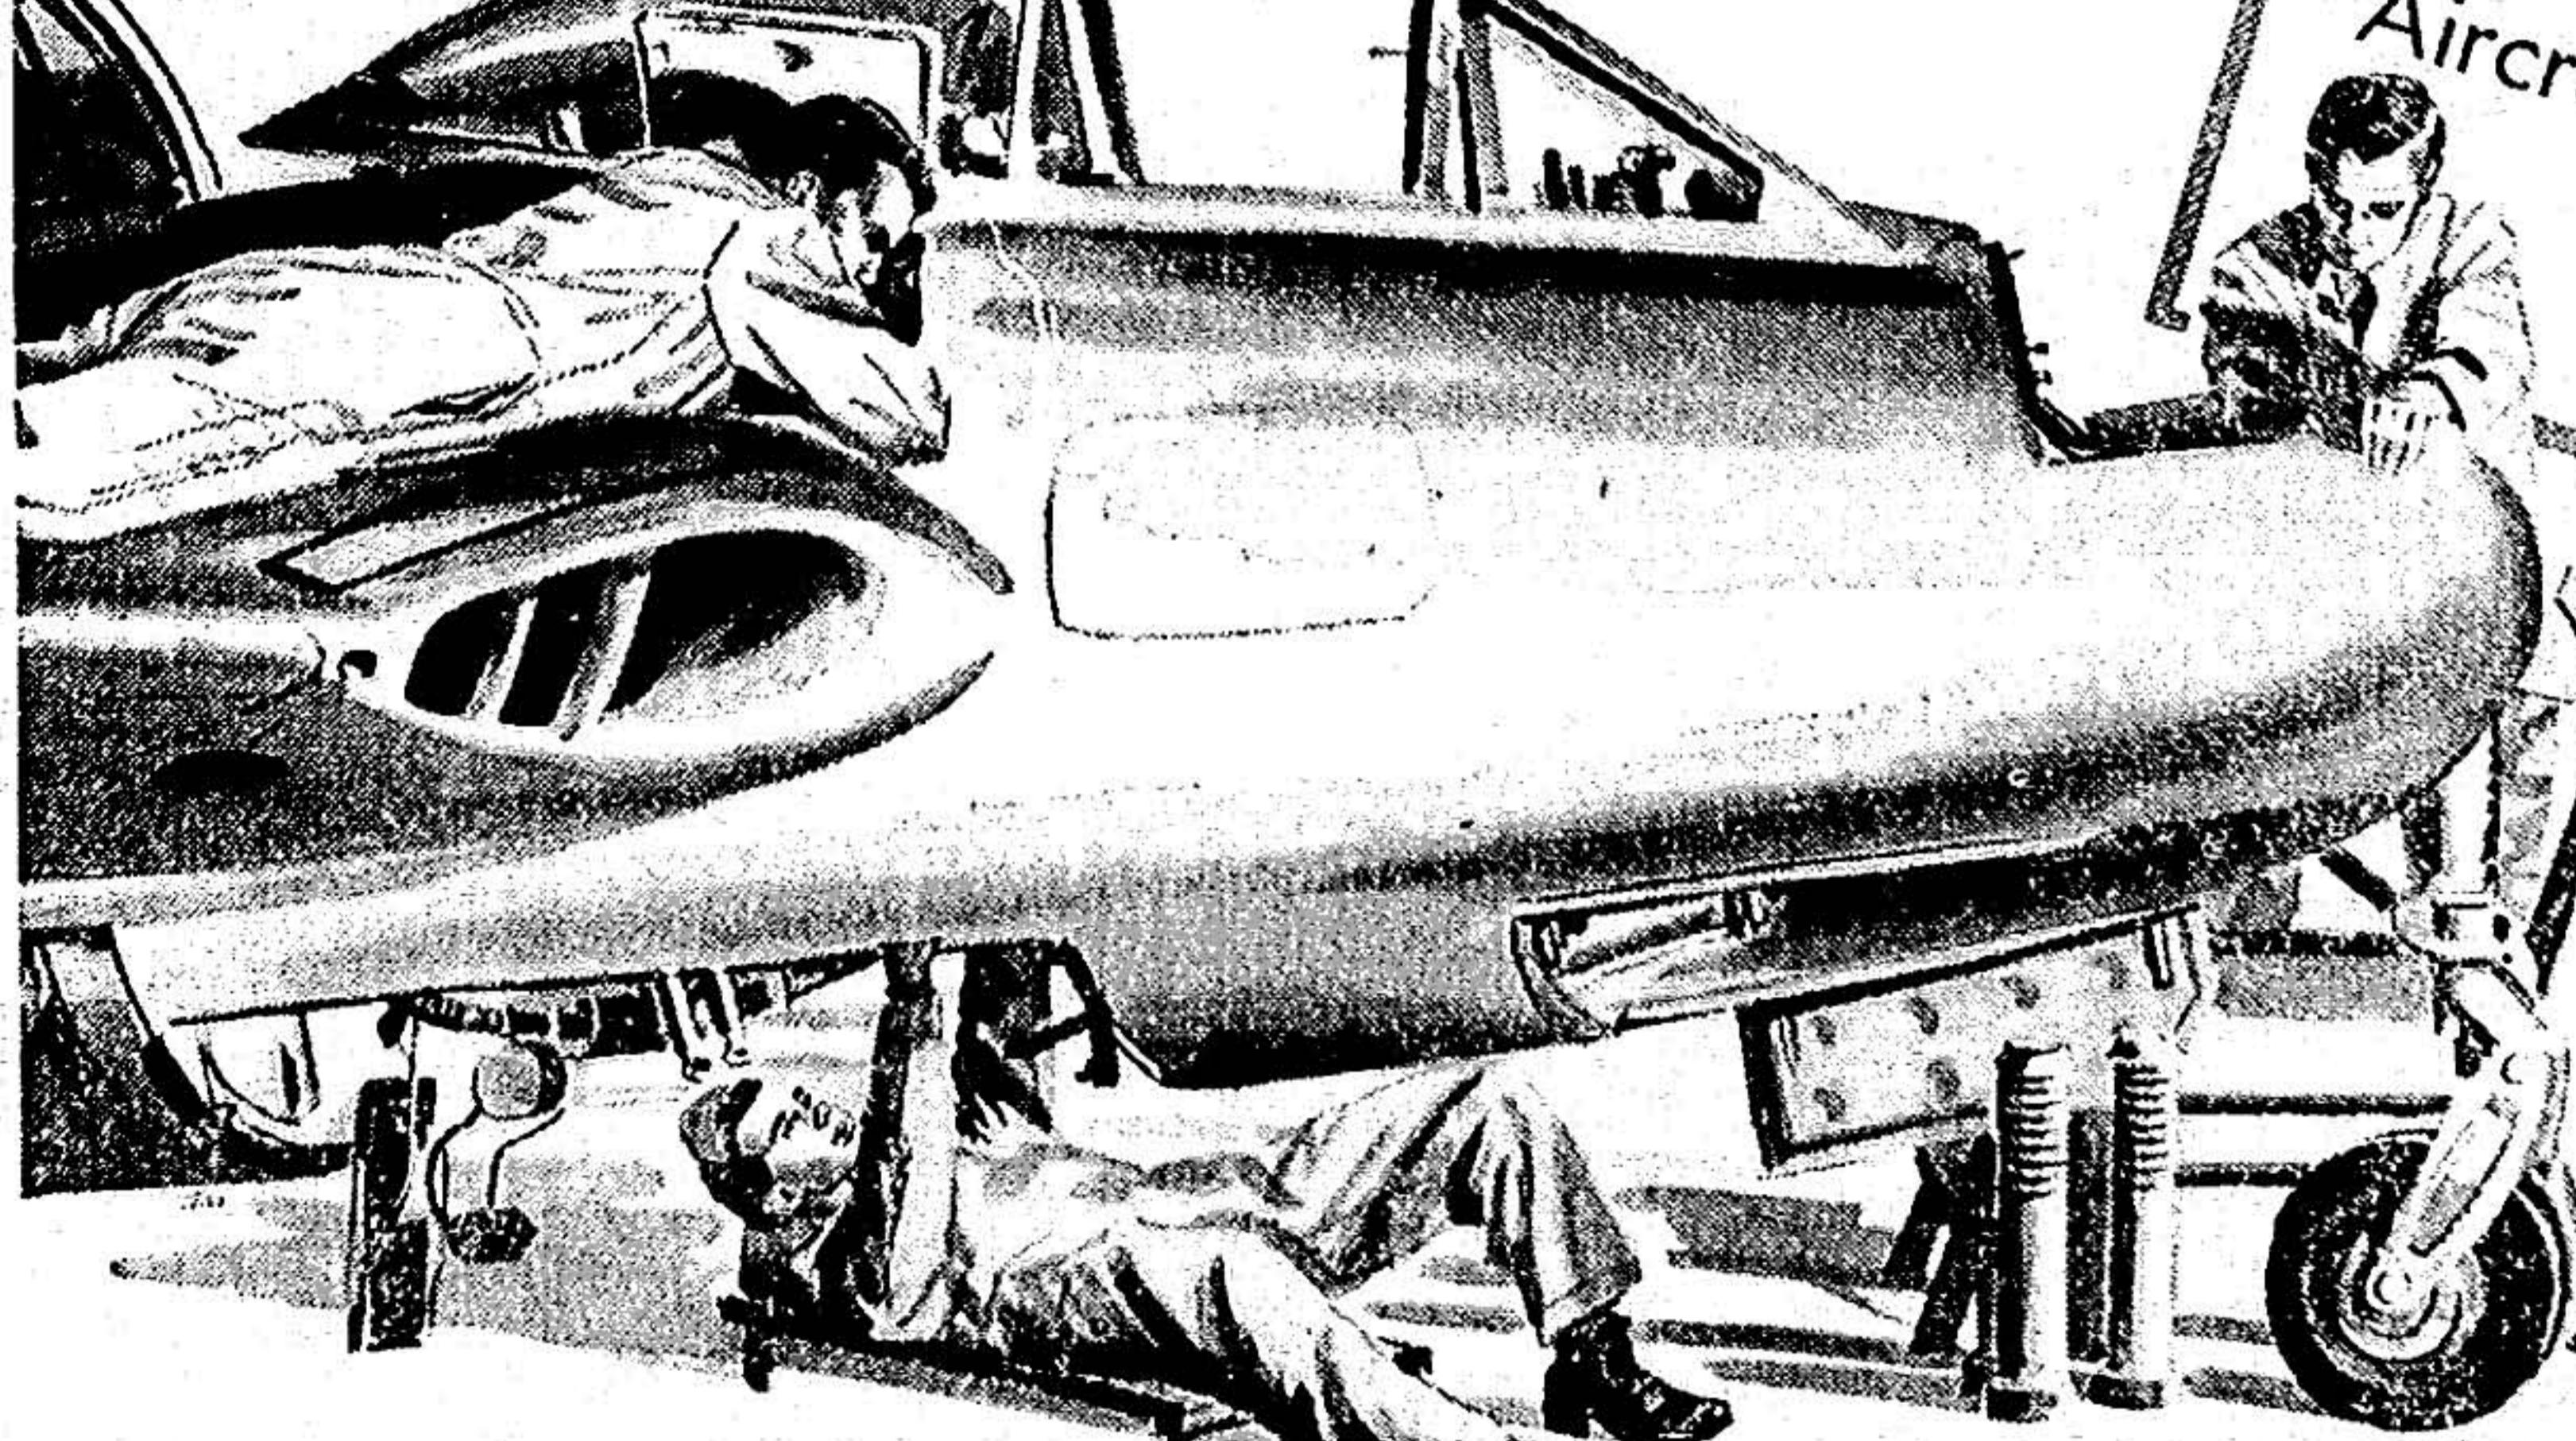

Its value and convenience were increased, too, by many improvements we were able to make in the quality of service, and because telephone people everywhere tried to be helpful and friendly.

There's a lot to be done in '51. You can be sure we'll keep on doing the best job we know how — to supply the kind of service that is so important to you — and so essential to our country.

HASH

BY GEORGE HASKETT
Newmarket Sports Editor

Spits made one point in four with the Clippers—one more than most inside dopesters had them figured for. There were 1,250 attendees here; 1,325 in Stouffville. Two bus loads of fans made trip to Stouffville Saturday.

Penalties in the Thursday-Saturday double shuffle were 14 here, 18 there. Spits earned 13. Proved disastrous in first round at Stouffville. Clippers pounced with Spits a man short for four goals. Geo. Sayliss was top biscuit shooter at Stouffville Saturday with a four-goal display.

Things are getting back to normal as coach Molineaux now has three lines to shuffle. One string has Bill Mabbett centre, Myles McInnis and "Motts" Thoms as flankers. "Swift" Todd sets up the plays for Denny LaBine and Ken Broughton. A new unit of Bill Johnston, Normie Legge and Harold Tunstead has sprung up, awaiting the return of Don Smith. Stan Gibbons is doing wing and defense chores. Trio of blue-line buffers, Al Shewchuk, Joe Peat and "Whitey" Bone. Joe Tunney was on the beam here in three-all draw with some fancy pipe-minding.

While Spits came up with a terrific game here, your observer thought they played better hockey against both Collingwood and Owen Sound. Maybe just an idea we had, but there seemed to be more zip and dash in those tussles and a quicker response to visitors' lapses. Bangay trouble? Long as we care to remember, Newmarket teams have been having trouble with these gentlemen: now they get it from two angles, coaching and on the ice. Bob has the Clippers going top speed and Nick picked up two goals in the two games.

Incidentally, that may prove a costly tie for the Clippers, that is if they have a mind to go Allan Cupping come March. Need every single point to match the Owen Sound "Mercurys" production. Top team we're informed proceeds into the Allan Cup playdowns.

Bad chappies: Tendency of late, both here and at Aurora, that when the referee hands out decision against the home sides to leave out papers, rubbers and anything else that's loose. Practically turn every hockey match into a minor brawl. A little of this goes a long way in the end, and tends to drive "the genuine hockey fan" away.

Regular rumpus at Aurora Friday as Hack Cain's "Bears" were given the loop de loop by Brampton. Started in second period as Ian Barron, branded the aggressor in a penalty box, rhubarb, and was handed his "going home" papers. But this was just the beginning. Trouble flared anew in the third period as Eddie Williams was thumbed away. Downright nonsense for a player to smash his stick to bits against the boards—besides sticks cost dough. And there's certainly no

Odds And Ends In Hockey Circles

Last week, one of our readers sez, "How about writing a regular column in place of being publicity agent for the hockey clubs?" We told him we were not on the payroll of any of the clubs or arenas and that this issue we'd correct things to suit him. So we won't mention this week that Newmarket Spits have a really important intermediate A tilt at home against Midland tonight and Aurora Cubs will be playing Bowmanville at Aurora. Tomorrow night finds St. Mike's at Aurora Bears and we won't remind you of that, except to say that the double blue has been beaten by Unionville and tied by Brampton and Herb Cain's clan, hanging on the ropes, needs this game desperately.

Woodbridge will be in Aurora on Tuesday to meet Aurora Indians and the two teams are evenly matched. Pic on publicity for the hockey clubs. Let's away on a round of sports news.

Do they play hockey in South Africa? The answer is yes, believe it or not. Back from a sojourn of three years in Johannesburg with a big oil corporation, Dudley Wilcox, former all-round athlete at Aurora high school, has been enjoying local hockey in copious quantities, and after the Wilkie fund game the other night, he recalled that he'd been playing hockey last summer on the Dark Continent.

The only arena on the continent is at Johannesburg and seats over 2,000, being slightly bigger than Newmarket arena. The fans come to the games in their shirt sleeves with the temperature around 80 outside, and ice-making is quite a tax on the arena system.

John Stuart, now down south, ranked fourth in the take for Canadian racing stables the past year in figures just released. The Stuart take was $34,927 from 23 firsts, 34 seconds and 27 thirds. John didn't have one of his horses rank in the first ten horses in Canada, as he did last year when he set a new Canadian money record and Bunt Line was picked as "horse of the year". The failure of Bunt Line, due to a tendon, and one or two others was a big disappointment to Stuart.

Wolf Out As Bradford Takes Thornton 12-4

Powered by a five-goal display by Roy "Mutt" Collings "who just dropped in for the exercise", Bradford "Celery Kings" had little or no trouble blasting Thornton into submission 12-4 Friday at Bradford rink. It was the Celery Kings' first win in two starts in the South Simcoe rural circuit.

Harry Caradonna started the visitors on their way with two early goals. Bill Boychow was the other two-goal man. Bruce Collings, Gord Zabo and Evan Stevens shipped in with single goals to complete the run to the wire over the young, inexperienced Thornton club.

Joe Wolf, Bradford winger, provided the main excitement of the first period as he tried to stage his own version of the Omaha Charles fight by belting referee Bob Peters. Mr. Wolf howled loud and long but nevertheless drew a match-misconduct sentence for his scrap with the law.

Bradford has a home game with Beeton booked for tomorrow, Friday evening.

Aurora Rockets After Fourth Straight Saturday

Andy Closs' goal-hungry, undefeated Aurora Junior D's walloped Millbrook 17-3 last Thursday. Leading scorer was Grant Winters with a four-goal display. Two-goal lads, as Aurora turned on the steam, were Chris Wansborough, Don Munshaw, Walt Fines and Artie Barber. Don Clayton, Lowell Waller, Andy Closs Jr., Bill McHale and Stew Wilson horned in on the scoring swag for one each.

Tonight at Aurora comes the big test for Closs' hopefuls. Bowmanville, rated as junior C with the O.H.A., move into Aurora arena for a trial of strength. The very busy Mr. Closs reports "we're out after our fourth straight win and naturally would like to see a good fan following around to cheer these kids on". Need we say more. Aurora arena 9 p.m. the focal point.

Aurora Merchants Lose Twice in Town Contention

When summer comes we suggest you visit the National Stud Farm above Oshawa near Brooklin. Taking over the Parkwood Stables property, the association, a non-profit organization to improve Canadian breeding, has a beautiful site. It costs $350 for breeding and you have your choice of the following sires: Tournol, who has a great record on French tracks; Fenelon, a son of the great Sir Gallahad; Flares, son of Gallant Fox, already the sire of over a million in purses; Firethorn, who races second in the Belmont and Preakness as a three-year-old; Fairaris, already established in Canadian racing records; Teddy Wrack, sire of Kingarvie, Moldy, Watch Wrack and many more. Some other horses are being purchased and it's hoped within a decade Canadian horses will hold their own with the best in America. It's a worthwhile target.

Strangely enough, McMillan has always looked better playing intermediate hockey than he did in junior C ranks.

Nobleton, we understand, is seeking a berth in junior D hockey and the O.H.A. has yet to rule whether or not it's too late. The club is an offspring of the North Toronto Lions club which makes the rink its home ice and feel a few local faces another year would give it a better following as a "home club". The entry will deal Andy Closs a blow as Andy has four or five boys over that way signed with Aurora and he's been about to call on them to strengthen his club which on its present showing appears as if it might go someplace. Some compensation from the O.H.A. would be in order if he loses signed players.

Closs wishes to thank all those who contributed cars for the trips away as does club sponsor Jimmy Wilson. The take at the gates is small, the trips to Orton, Bowmanville and Millbrook cost around $50 to the club via bus so the offer of a car or gasoline to take the homebrows away will be welcomed with open arms.

Don't forget, if you live in Canaltown, that Johnny Hines and his co-partners in Newmarket Rockets who have a tough path to patrol, might like a little bit of motor car help from you and you. Remember there's no pot of gold these days for those running a hockey club. If any players of either club and Aurora, always noted for good conduct among the spectators and players, received a black eye. Neither Ian Barron or Eddie Williams added anything to their hockey future or their present status with temperamental displays.

Hugh McRae, last year a promising rookie with Aurora Meteors, is attending O.A.C. at Guelph this season and playing hockey with the Aggies. Red Mitchell, who was the target for much sniping at Aurora last winter, has his 16-day Juniors at the top of the heap in the Eastern Ontario junior B group and they stand a real chance to clean up the east. Paul Maguire, after a shaky start, has been tending goal in sensational fashion and Grant Green, who hopped home from Aurora without as much as "good-bye", is also playing improved hockey. The Lindsay club would be a great drawing card for an exhibition tilt in either Aurora or Newmarket and we think Mitchell at this stage would be ready to bring his boys over this way. Need we say more?

Frankie Hughes, who as a youngster played goal for Aurora juniors in 1942 before being replaced by the late Don Hamilton, at 24, is the outstanding defenceman in the West Toronto mercantile circuit. Bruce McMillan, former Stouffville-Sutton-Aurora player who has joined Aurora Indians, is employed at Weston this year and playing mercantile hockey there. It is to be hoped McMillan finds it convenient to be on hand with the tribe, as he's a real addition.

HAWKS WIN 1ST, ECHO MAJORS, 'STOP REDWINGS'

Black Hawks, Maple Leafs and Red Wings were National Hockey League victors as our minor hockey pals kept things humming at the arena Friday. The lowly Black Hawks, after being dumped on their well worn britches four times in a row, rallied to score a goal a period to sneak home 3-2 winners over Don Warner's Bruins.

John Graham was the cracker-jack on the Hawks' front line, popping away for two goals. Laurie VanZant connected for an unassisted first period tally and along with Glen Keffler, was the helper on the other Hawk counters. Murray Chandler, hot as a July heat wave, with side help from Ron Bray, clicked for both Bruins tallies. Bruins starting their rally too late to draw up even with the Hawks.

Joe Wolf, Bradford winger, provided the main excitement of the first period as he tried to stage his own version of the Omaha Charles fight by belting referee Bob Peters. Mr. Wolf howled loud and long but nevertheless drew a match-misconduct sentence for his scrap with the law.

Bradford has a home game with Beeton booked for tomorrow, Friday evening.

Balloons start their ascent at Fort Churchill, Man., to carry instruments to the atmosphere's "ceiling" and to obtain data on the cosmic ray. Science has long been puzzled as to the origin of these energy-charged particles which bombard the earth from outer space. A report on these findings may establish that the sun is the major source of the cosmic ray barrage which beats upon the earth. The National Geographic Society and the Bartol Research Foundation of Swarthmore, Pa., co-sponsors of the research program, have set up their expedition at Fort Churchill, situated in the bleak Arctic region above the Hudson Bay outpost.

Rockets Still Improving But Not Enough To Win

Newmarket Rockets looked like "Little Lord Fauntleroys" for a period Tuesday night—and that period was enough to allow Collingwood "Greenshirts" to ram in five goals.

You just don't spot the Greenshirts five goals and get away with it. The Greenshirts nursing that early production along for a 9-8 win over the Rockets. It was the Rockets' sixth loss in seven tries. What happened between the first and second periods, we're not qualified to say.

Though we didn't see coach Joe Peat carrying in his spurs, he must have rode herd on his charges. They came out in the second and though outscored by a 4-2 margin—it was mighty improved show they put on and in the third period they outscored the visitors, hailed by their local disciples as the future junior C champs, by a 2-1 margin. The general impression was that the visitors realized before the night was out they'd been in a hockey game.

Rockets' scoring punch, when they did find it, was spread around thinly. No one picked up more than one scoring credit. Rod Black, Stroud product with the Rockets, on a three-way passing play that took in defensemen Bob Hanna and Sid Beattie, fired number one. Dick Shannon with Aubrey "Pep" Martin and Rod Black earning assists whipped in

Tanners, Town Share Wins in Newmarket Loop

Harry Thoms' Davis "Tanners", though short-staffed, dug up enough enthusiasm in the Town League "double dish" Monday to whomp Hoffmann's 4-1. In the night cap, Town "Merchants", paced by Bob Smith, recovered their scoring punch to roll to an 8-4 win over Office Specialty.

The Tanners picked up a 2-0 lead in the opening round, the teams shared a goal each in the middle "go" with Tanners adding the insurance marker in the third. Bohmer Groves stole away from his Hoffmann checks to club in three goals to spark the Tanners, one unassisted and other two with help from brother Jack and Penny Townsley. Cliff Gunn's second period unassisted goal spoiled Reg Baker's bid for a shut-out in his first appearance in the Tannery cage. Baker is subbing for the injured Geo. Fletcher. Bruce Townsley parked number four tally in the Hoffmann cage, via a nifty bit of stick-handling.

Town "Merchants" did a bit of sprinting in the opening period to open up a six-goal edge before the Specialty awoke to the fact there was a game on. The second period was scoreless while the teams took an even cut of the scoring in the final frame with two each.

Bob Smith showed his scoring class around Tod Mosier's door step with two goals and four assists. "Shorty" Wrightman, Ken Groves, Harold Gwyn, Ken Rusnell, Ivan Gibson and Ron Eves poured on the scoring heat with singles. Barney Pearson picked a corner for two goals to once again pace the Cabinet Makers, Albert Evans and Grant Crowder beat Bill Ingram, who had a busy third period, for the other Specialty markers. Ken Broughton handled the whistle-tooting in both games.

Late Starts

By George Haskett

The old bugaboo of "late starts" is again getting a full fling from quite a number of the patrons of hockey teams in Newmarket and at Aurora. Several fans have prompted us to get busy "and knock somebody into the aisle about it" and are pressing for an answer.

Their query is: "Why in the name of all get out, when a game is advertised for 8.30, why doesn't it start then? Not at 20 to 9 or later."

Very extreme case this week. Newmarket Rockets scheduled to take the ice at 8.30 Tuesday, or so we were led to believe, and didn't start until 9.10. As several fans report, "We're not going down there to freeze for half an hour or so waiting for hockey teams to start."

They've got a point and it's a genuine beef. Number of games hereabouts to start on time could be counted off on the fingers of one hand. That, friends, may be one of the answers to short attendance.

Now if the O.H.A. without our knowledge hasn't snipped the page out of the rule book, translated literally it reads "twenty-five bucks fine if any game isn't started on time". Why they don't clamp down on this and have every referee make his report stating starting time, we'll never know. The rule's there. Why not enforce it?

We're told since setting the trusty Underwood in motion that Tuesday's game was delayed because Port Perry was late arriving. That delayed the whole show and set the junior game back a full half-hour. Maybe so but 90 percent of the time it's just a case of the teams not making an effort to start on the dot.

Several fans also raise the point of why aren't the goal scorers, etc., given out over the P.A.? Yours truly gets the blame here—and we'll see what can be done about it. You listening, Mr. Dixon?

On the alleys

Lady softballers must make bowlers. Here's the story. Hester Clark headed the slate in Monday Town Ladies league with 739 (251-217-271). Mary Osborne 707, Mona Dean 606, Jean Gatti 579 (how did you get in), Phyl McInnis 576, Edna McGrath 575, Annie Stickland 560, Flo Campbell 551. Spark Plugs made a sweep, snaring four points from Femmes. Wizards 3, Dubs 1, Feeps and Cubs split. League standing Wizards 34, Cubs 32 1/2, Spark Plugs 29, Femmes 28, Feeps 26, Dubs 18 1/2.

Jack Boag struck down the pins at a 712 (301-208-203) clip to rate first place in Hoffman League last week. Other fine scores were posted by Frank VandenBerg 683, Ken Jones 665, Frank Daniels 657, "Sammy" Brymer 640, Jack Gleason 626, Machine Shop punched out a 7-0 win over Office. Sheet Metal nosed out Press Shop 4-3. League standing Press Shop 54, Sheet Metal 45, Machine Shop 43, Vorclone 42, Office 40.

Couple of weeks notes here from the Thursday night gals. Myrt Dunn headed the slate both weeks, making a noteworthy contribution with a 712 (187-323-202). That's a high spot for the season. Other fine scores turned in by Doris Beare 621, Vi Dales 619, Helen Tomlinson 603, Norma Peel 594, Olive Hughston 586.

Tuesday evening they packed four goals into the second period to earn a 4-0 shut-out win over Port Perry. It was the second straight win for Bohmer Groves coached clan. The game was cut to two periods due to the late arrival of Port Perry.

A Norm Lighthart to Mickey Barker to Stan Pollard three-way relay started the Imperials on their way after 55 seconds of duelling in the second period, and they never lost the lead. Bruce Langford made it 2-0 and Stan Pollard made it three, both on unassisted voyages into the Port Perry goal-mouth. Wayne Robinson clicked on a pass from Bruce Langford before the period came to a close to shut the scoring books.

Ken Burke in the Newmarket cage had some hot ones to stop but did his duty in big league style.

Newmarket: g. K. Burke; d. F. Morton, K. Ball; c. W. Robinson; w. J. Staley, B. Langford; a. S. Pollard, C. Rickard, N. Lighthart, W. McCachen, M. Osachuk, B. Osachuk, D. Barker, B. Rogers.

Port Perry: K. Sweetman, L. Johnston, G. VanCamp, D. Cosgrove, H. Jeffrey, B. Miller, K. Skelton, D. Ashbridge, R. Wallace, F. Nure, P. Sullivan, W. Gibson, D. Geer, K. VanCamp.

An aviator becomes an Ace after he destroys five enemy planes.

Bears and Bisons, Marlbros and Rockets were winners in the Saturday morning school hockey shuffle. Two shut-outs were recorded. Rockets, with Ralph Emerson and Wayne Crouch the shot-makers, eased out a 2-0 win over Flyers. Doug Campbell's scoring wonders, the Marlboro, poured it on to whomp the Spits 7-0. Barton Sedore supplied main fire-power for the Marlies.

In the pee-wee circuit, Frank Hollingsworth's Hornets gave the Barons a 5-1 Saturday morning scoring class. John Gable, Lorne Babcock sniped for two, Jim Bond one for the winners. Don Bone kept the wolf from Barons' door-step with a nifty lone effort.

Bears and Bisons staged a close checking show before Bisons cried uncle 2-1. Brian Milian and Ken Cassavoy were the goal-getters for the winners. Francis Lewis lone twin-bene for the Bisons.

Three goals in a thrilling overtime passage enabled Queensville to eke out a 7-6 win over Vandorf in an exhibition game at Queensville arena Friday evening.

It was the curtain raiser on the hockey season at Queensville. Queensville had to dig hard for the win as Vandorf poured in for two goals in the overtime period. It was a four-all deadlock at end of regulation time.

Lorne Shropshire, Bill Coates and Allan Lockie were the big guns for Queensville with a pair each. Bill Hood connected for the seventh and final tally for the winners.

Ron Eves and Harold Gwyn, "loanees" from the Merchants, popped up the Specialty attack with a two-goal performance each. John Sheldowick, Jack "Bomber" Smith, also a lendee, and Nick Zogalo were on the shooting end for singles.

"That's just a sample of what kind of hockey we can look for if we can get the league going," reports secretary Ken Rogers. "Vandorf and Queensville are ready. We need two more teams." Anybody listening, step up. Don't be bashful, men.

Bantams Take Ajax 6-1 For Third Straight Win

Newmarket Optimist bantams blazed a red hot trail in the O.M.H.A. group-play to register their third straight win at the arena Friday, knocking off Ajax 6-1. It was the second time in less than a week that the locals have floored Ajax. The Optimists rang the bell for a 4-1 lead in the opening round and never lost or had their lead threatened.

Bill Cain carried the main scoring punch for the victors with a pair of goals and an assist. Grant Morton, Bill Forhan, Bob Wilson and Ken Bell had single tallies. John Galbraith and Francis Lewis earned assists. Terry Wensley spoiled a shut-out performance for Murray Young late in the first period.

Both the midgets and bantams, under the coaching eye of Fred Dillman and Ken Broughton, are going great guns and have another double-header attraction this Friday at the arena. Officials of the teams wish to thank Don Smith, Grant Blight and Ken Ross for their fine refereeing chores.

Newmarket: M. Young, C. McGuire, G. Morton, B. Wilson, B. Millian, B. Arkinstown, K. Bell, W. Cain, J. Galbraith, J. Mills, W. Forhan, F. Lewis, D. McKnight, W. Townsley, J. McGuire.

Ajax: F. Wotton, F. Fawcett, W. Laycock, E. Tory, T. Wensley, W. Tait, N. Nostrand, W. Boyd, L. Jones, J. Rennick, W. Johnston, T. Skelcher, D. Noland, J. Neill.

AURORA TURN IN MIDGET TURN AND TURN ABOUT

Newmarket Optimist midgets and Bill Mundell's Aurora Cubs have been trading wins since they started out this winter. It was Aurora's turn Friday at the arena with a 4-3 win in a well played game.

Bob Forhan, who has a habit of cropping up in the scoring summaries with the greatest regularity, shot in two goals for Newmarket. Freeman West notched one and assisted with two. Bob "Stogie" Hodgins also rated an assist.

Aurora scoring was shared four ways with Don Morning sniping for the first with John Richards and Merle Winters starting the pay-off relay on its way. John Richards, Grant Edwards and Ron Knowles were other Aurora marksmen with unassisted efforts.

Aurora: R. Starkey, B. Andrews, M. Chapman, S. Wilson, T. McCleary, C. Murrell, M. Winters, J. Richards, J. Urquhart, D. Morning, G. Edwards, W. Egan, R. Knowles, R. McGann, G. Kiroff.

Newmarket: G. Langford, B. Broadbent, P. Stewart, D. Creed, B. Forhan, F. West, G. Davis, M. Chandler, E. Lothian, B. Hodges, B. Beaudoin, L. VanZant, J. Zumianski, G. Kesser.

Spits were not on. Their scoring punch was missing. They had their share of territory play, especially in a driving last period—but Normie Stundt committed grand larceny time after time.

Jack Watson with three, Moe Galand, Ron Bell and Norm Grey, two-goal men collared the Markies' tallies.

Teams return to battle here to-night and the Spits will have to get primed up for their visit to Stouffville Saturday night or else fourth place may go as both Alliston and Collingwood are showing signs of looking alive further down the ladder.

AURORA INDIANS UP LEAD WITH 7-2 WIN OVER NAVY

Aurora "Indians" increased their lead atop the Trolley League standing to a full eight points by giving Navy a 7-2 loss Tuesday in Aurora arena. The loss, the fourth Navy has absorbed, skidded them further into the deep dark shadows of the league basement.

Don Campbell shot in two first period tallies to give the Indians a 2-1 edge. Loring Doolittle took over charge of the scoring traffic in the second period with a pair of neat tallies and was the work horse on Keith Wardell's marker. Aurora's third of the frame as Indians lengthened their margin to 5-1.

Bill Patrick and Loring Doolittle pulled the trigger on third period counters for the Indians to close up their scoring books. Don Campbell and Keith Wardell were helpers on Patrick's goal. Wardell came right back to feed the disc to Doolittle for his hat-trick performance. Bill Bazan and Hal Capru were the Navy sharpshooters.

TIGHT OVERTIME PLAY GIVES QUEENSVILLE WIN

Three goals in a thrilling overtime passage enabled Queensville to eke out a 7-6 win over Vandorf in an exhibition game at Queensville arena Friday evening.

It was the curtain raiser on the hockey season at Queensville. Queensville had to dig hard for the win as Vandorf poured in for two goals in the overtime period. It was a four-all deadlock at end of regulation time.

Lorne Shropshire, Bill Coates and Allan Lockie were the big guns for Queensville with a pair each. Bill Hood connected for the seventh and final tally for the winners.

Clem Ellis and Bill Kingdon made it a two-man scoring show for Vandorf, planting three goals apiece.

"That's just a sample of what kind of hockey we can look for if we can get the league going," reports secretary Ken Rogers. "Vandorf and Queensville are ready. We need two more teams." Anybody listening, step up. Don't be bashful, men.

SPITS TIE STOUFFVILLE

Fans and fanettes who came prepared Thursday to shed tears as to what the very hot Stouffville "Clippers" might do to Newmarket Spits, stuck around through ten minutes of overtime to watch the vaunted high scoring league leaders being held to a 3-all draw.

The Spits' share of the point split enabled them to jump into undisputed possession of third place in the league race.
